- Mexico has 10 cities designated as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.
- Do you know which are they?
- Let's learn more about Mexico's heritage sites

México

Guanajuato

Falling in love with Guanajuato, it's easy. With its amazing places full of color and history, its warm atmosphere of peace and tranquility, and the beautiful people WHO lives there, you'll feel THAT your dreams are coming to life. Perhaps this is why UNESCO has named it a World Heritage Site.

- Guanajuato is a land where you can walk through its picturesque magical villages, learn its history through its four archaeological zones, or marvel at the impressive mummified bodies, WHICH are one of the most famous tourist's attractions there.

- It's a place full of magic, with a unique energy, located in the heart of Mexico THAT allows you to discover its traditions, culture, and unique architecture with various buildings and houses WHICH are a great example of colonial architecture in neoclassical and baroque style.

Morelia

- To visit Morelia is to visit a city WHICH has stopped in the time, its calm streets are silent witnesses of the history that has been accumulating in the nooks and corners; they have been perfectly defined by the magnificence of colonial constructions.

- Built with the characteristic pink stone of the region, its monuments reveal the flawless and eclectic fusion of the medieval spirit with Renaissance, Baroque and neoclassical elements THAT nowadays rise like echoes of the time of the viceroyalty.

What about Hidalgo?

In Hidalgo we have magic towns, like: Huasca de Ocampo, Real del Monte, Mineral del chico, etc.
