UNIVERSIDAD AUTÓNOMA DEL ESTADO DE HIDALGO

Escuela Superior de Huejutla

English Academy

Professor: Ana Yuridia Morales Flores

July – December 2017
ABSTRACT

L2 learners know how to use the word “too” since basic levels but, they get confuse when reach a higher level as B1 for example specifically with topics as “Agreements and disagreements” due to the use of the word “so”, also they don’t know about the words “neither” & “either”.

The correct use of these words is very simple we just need to know the proper use and order of those words. Then let’s practice.

Key words: so, too, neither, either
AGREEMENTS AND DISAGREEMENTS

Both are “también”

Both are “tampoco”

at the beginning

SO/TOO

NEITHER/EITHER

in the last
Examples with affirmative sentences

I go to school by taxi everyday.
So does Carlos
Carlos does too
So + aux + subject
Subject + aux + too

I am learning English online.
So am I
I am too
So + aux + subject
Subject + aux + too

We have worked in a project for 3 years.
So has she
She has too
So + aux + subject
Subject + aux + too

Miguel has been traveling to Pachuca
So have we
We have too
So + aux + subject
Subject + aux + too

My family will come back tomorrow
So will Ana
Ana will too
So + aux + subject
Subject + aux + too

They went to the gym las week
So did Omar
Omar did too
So + aux + subject
Subject + aux + too
Examples with negative sentences

I don’t go to school by taxi everyday.

Neither does Carlos

Carlos doesn’t either

Neither am I

I am not either

We haven’t worked in a project for 3 years.

Neither has she

She has either

Neither have we

We have either

Miguel hasn’t been traveling to Pachuca

Neither have we

We have either

My family won’t come back tomorrow

Neither will Ana

Ana will either

They went to the gym las week

Neither did Omar

Omar didn’t too
