

Pronombres interrogativos

Question words

Lidie S. Cortés Fernández

---

Abstract:

These words are learnt in the first semester of high school. You use them to collect information about something specific. Most importantly, you use them in every level and in different situations. It is imperative to know the meaning and use of each word, so you don't mix them and use them incorrectly.

Keywords:

Question words, situations, meaning

---

Resumen:

Estas palabras se aprenden en el primer semestre del bachillerato. Se utilizan para obtener información específica de algo. Son muy importantes ya que se utilizan en todos los niveles y en diferentes situaciones. Es esencial saber el significado y uso de cada palabra para no confundirlas y utilizarlas de forma incorrecta.

Palabras Clave:

Pronombres interrogativos, situaciones, significado

---

Introducción

Question words, also known as "interrogative words", are crucial in English for asking questions and obtaining specific details. These words include "who", "what", "where", "when", "why", "which", and "how", and they each serve a unique purpose in identifying different aspects of information.

- Who: is used to ask about people.
- What: inquires about things or actions.
- Where: asks for locations or places.
- When: refers to time-related questions.
- Why: seeks explanations or reasons.
- Which: helps to choose between options.
- How: asks about the manner, condition, or process of something.

The use of these words is important because they facilitate effective communication by directing the conversation towards specific details. They help gather information, clarify doubts, and promote understanding in both spoken and written interactions. In academic settings, question words guide research and critical thinking, allowing for more in-depth exploration of subjects. In everyday conversations, they help us connect with others by showing interest in their thoughts, experiences, and perspectives.

Overall, question words are foundational to language, helping us communicate more effectively, engage in meaningful dialogue, and learn more about the world around us.

---

<sup>a</sup> Lidie Susana Cortés Fernández, Universidad Autónoma del Estado de Hidalgo | Escuela Preparatoria No. 4 | Pachuca de Soto-Hidalgo | México, <https://orcid.org/0000-0002-2437-4256>, Email: lidie\_cortes7698@uaeh.edu.mx

Question words

M.E. Lidie Susana Cortés Fernández
Escuela Preparatoria Número 4

Referencias

- [1] Cambridge Dictionary. (s.f.). Question words. <https://dictionary.cambridge.org/grammar/british-grammar/question-words>

Figure 1. Question words